So long as it was "a forbidden land" a "hermit kingdom" a certain halo of romance and, a degree of mystery clung to Korea. More intimate acquaintance with the peninsular Kingdom has robbed it of most of the mystery, and the opening up of the country to trade has denuded it of much of the romance. It was reserved, however for foreign travellers to strip Korea of the last vestiges of mystery and reveal it in its naked simplicity and squalor to the Western eye. Mr. CARLES did very much to make the real Korea known by the account he gave of his travels in it, and his narrative is now supplemented by that of Captain CAVENDISH, of the Argyll and Satherland assertion of her suzercinty by China, by whom visitors will receive courteens attention. LATE TELEGRAMS.

The following telegrams are from Vancouver, San Francisco, and Rangeon papers :---DISAPPLOVE OF BOSEBERY'S PLATFORM. NEW YORK, 11th April.

The Trisk Independent Perliamentary party met to night and adopted the following resolutions: "Whereas, Lord Rosebery has by his recent atterances made it plain that Home Rule la no longer the first plank in the Liberal platorm, insumuch as be has made it a principle that England the predominant partner should first return a majority of members in favor of Home Bale for Iroland, before he could see it possible to second to the demands of Ireland, he it resolved, that we are in entire accord with the resolution assess at the great convention held in Dublin, on Tuesday, April 3rd, 1894, calling on the Irish Independent representatives to force a dissolution of Parliament, believing, as we do, that such a course of action would be for the best interests of Iraland." THE ANTI-LORDS BILL.

LONDON, 14th April.
The anti-Lords Bill, fathered by Lord Wolmor. Mr. Curzon, and Mr. Brodrick, which was mentioned in these despatches a fornight go, has assumed definite shape and his at once obtained the strong opposition of the Radicals, who have nothing for it but jaces. They certainly have reason to complain of its provisions, and it is very doubtful that it will be introduced without considerable change in its forms. The measure provides that a peer after sitting in the House of Commons throughout one Parliament may resums his right to sit in the House of Lords i he's all so elect. On the other hand, the Bill did not find his body. I cannot say whether the provides that a pear once electing to sit in the House of Lurds shall forever forfeit his right to sit in the House of Commons. This is deo dedly a jug-handled sobeme and must of necessity meet with strong opposition.

The Cablact are having considerable difficulty in arriving at a decision as to the manner in which they shall deal with the anti-Lords question. The Ministers well know that the Radicals are determined to force them to a definite declaration on the question in the course of the session and are slive to the necessity of arriving at some deferminate course of procedure. They are continuing their discussions on the antient at every meeting of the Cabinet, and every effort is being made to reach some conclusion in the construction of some form of measure restricting or abolishing the veto power of the Lords that will command the approval of a majority of the House of Commone PAILURE OF "MARE TWAIN."

INEW YORK, 18th April. The assignment of Samuel L. Clemons, "Mark I wain," and his partner, Frederick J. Hall, who e completes the firm of Charles L. Webster & Co. book publishers, at No. 8 Fifth Avenue, was filed in the county olark's office to-day just at the close of business. The assignee is Mr. Bainbridge Colby, of No. 40. Wall Street. The assign. meat was without preference and the deed was signed by Mr. Clamens in this city. The assign. meat was a complete surprise, and is stated to be on account of the failure of the firm to ob tain money which they confidently expected. to get to meet obligations just maturing. The business was started on May 1st, 1884, by Charles D. Webster and his wife's ancie, Samuel L. Clemens. The firm started in to publish the works of "Mark Twain," but afterwards added the works of other authors, principally subscription becks. They also handled miscellanuous books Mr. Webster withdrew from the firm in 1838 and die Lin 1891 Mr. Brederick, J. Hall ancessed Mr. Webster in the firm upon the latter's withdrawal and has since continued as the active manager of the firm's business . In 1891 the firm began the publication of the Library of American Literature, into which it was understond that they put $100,000 and which tied up a part of their onpital. They sold this part of the business in October, 1893, to Mr. Everts Benjamin. Early in January last Mr. Hall stated that the firm sold a part of their aubscription book business, continuing to have a subscription branch, but were making trade books the feature of the business. The telegraphic instructions sent from the reasory Department this morning, which widently had not reached Collector Saunder at the time he forwarded the present telegrom; are considered by Treasury officials as sufficient answer to his request for instructions. Attorney-General Olney was shown the telegram of Collector Saunder. He said his opinion simply set forth the law passed last November. It was the evident intention of the law-makers not to permit Ohiness merchants to conceal their Mentity in the word "company" of firms. The law was plain. It might work a hardship in some cases. It is understood that the Obluese Minister has received during the day several telegrams from detuced morehants at Port ownsend making his intervention. Several of the detained merchants, it is said, left the United States for China before the law of November last was passed, and their detantion now under a new law may lead to further complications with

LORD & LIBEURY ON THE ROUSE OF LORDS. LONDON, 19th April. Lord Salisbury, in addressing on audience composed of members of the Primrose League to-day, said he himself was not opposed to reforming the House of Lords, which he thought would be done by the appointment of more life poors. He mid that the Government, if it believed that the action of the House of Lords in rejection the Home Rule Bill was against the planes of the people, should at once disgolve, and appeal to the country. He did not wish to be understood as saying that the Government anglet to dissolve every time a diference arose between the two houses, but upon a difference of oung the relations between two parts of the Kingdom, which had enbaisted for seven conturies, it was manifestly their duty to the electors Lord Salisbury than referred to the Government's Redistribution Bill which he said. would distrapohise thousands of the best people and extend the right to vote to many who were precically vagrants.
